1. Any police officer or authorized officer, employee or agent of the Department of Consumer Protection – Weights and Measures, upon service on the operator of a vehicle and/or person in possession of tools or implements of a notice of violation for operating without a license required by subdivision 1 of section 863.313 of this article, may seize and impound any vehicle, tool or other implement which such officer has reasonable cause to believe is being used in connection with such violation. Any vehicle, tool or implement seized pursuant to this section shall be delivered into the custody of the Department of Public Safety or Department of Consumer Protection – Weights and Measures.
2. A person from whom a vehicle, tool or implement has been seized and impounded pursuant to this section shall receive notice at the time of such seizure and by overnight mail, as soon thereafter as practical informing such person how and when the vehicle, tool or implement may be reclaimed. In the event that the person from whom the vehicle was seized is not the registered owner of the vehicle, separate notice shall be provided by overnight mail to the registered owner of the vehicle. 3. The Director or Sealer or the designee of the Director or Sealer shall hold a hearing in accordance with the provisions of section 277.151 of the Laws of Westchester County not otherwise in conflict with this section, to adjudicate the violation of subdivision 1 of section 863.313 of this article underlying the seizure and impoundment within five business days after the date of such seizure and impoundment and shall render his or her determination immediately following the conclusion of such hearing. Such determination shall also include a finding as to whether or not such vehicle, tool or other implement was used in connection with such violation, and if necessary, an additional finding as to whether the owner of such property, if not the person served with a notice of violation pursuant to subdivision 1 of this section, permitted the use of such property under circumstances evincing that such owner knew or should have known that such property would be used for the conduct that was the basis for the seizure of the property. There shall be a rebuttable presumption that such owner knew or should have known that such property would be used for the conduct that was the basis for the seizure of the property, if such owner was the employer, parent, legal guardian or spouse of the person served with a notice of violation pursuant to subdivision 1 of this section at the time of the seizure.

4. A vehicle, tool or other implement seized and impounded pursuant to this section may be released to the owner of such property prior to the hearing provided in subdivision 3 of this section upon the posting of an all cash bond in a form satisfactory to the Director or Sealer in an amount sufficient to cover: (a) the maximum civil penalties which may be imposed for the violation of subdivision 1 of section 863.313 of this article underlying the seizure and impoundment; (b) all outstanding civil penalties previously imposed pursuant to Section 277.171 of the Laws of Westchester County against the person served with a notice of violation pursuant to subdivision 1 of this section – if the authorized agent seizing such property pursuant to subdivision 1 of this section alleges, based upon reasonable cause to believe, that such owner, if not the person served with a notice of violation pursuant to subdivision 1 of this section, permitted the use of such property under circumstances evincing that such owner knew or should have known that such property would be used for the alleged conduct that was the basis for the seizure of the property; and (c) all reasonable costs for removal and storage of such vehicle, tool or implement. In addition, release of such vehicle, tool or other implement to the owner of such property shall also require payment of all outstanding civil penalties previously imposed pursuant to Section 277.171 of the Laws of Westchester County directly against such owner. Release to a person claiming such property shall be conditioned on presentation of, in the case of (i) a vehicle, proof of ownership or authorization from the owner of the vehicle as ownership is defined by section 388 of the Vehicle and Traffic Law, or (ii) in the case of a tool or other implement or equipment, proof of ownership or authorization by the owner satisfactory to the Director or Sealer.

5. Following an adjudication that has resulted in a determination that the vehicle, tool or other implement was used in connection with unlicensed activity in violation of subdivision 1 of section 863.313 of this article, release of such vehicle, tool or other implement to the owner of such property may be obtained upon payment of: (a) all civil penalties for the violation of subdivision 1 of section 863.313 of this article underlying the seizure and impoundment; (b) all outstanding civil penalties previously imposed pursuant to Section 277.171 of the Laws of Westchester County directly against such owner; (c) all outstanding civil penalties previously imposed pursuant to Section 277.171 of the Laws of Westchester County against the person served with a notice of violation pursuant to subdivision 1 of this section – if such owner was determined by the Director or Sealer or the designee of the Director or Sealer pursuant to subdivision 3 of this section, to have permitted the use of such property by the person served with a notice of violation pursuant to subdivision 1 of this section under circumstances evincing that such owner knew or should have known that such property would be used for the conduct that was the basis for the seizure of the property; and (d) all reasonable costs for removal and storage of such vehicle, tool or implement and proof of ownership as provided in subdivision 4 of this section.

6. No person shall obtain release of a vehicle, tool or other implement pursuant to subdivisions 4 and 5 of this section, unless and until such person submits an application for a home improvement license, or reinstatement of such a license, as appropriate, to the Director or Sealer in the form and containing the information required by the Director or Sealer. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, in the event that the owner of the vehicle, tool or other implement was not the person who was served with a notice of violation alleging a violation of the provisions of subdivision 1 of section 863.313 of this article or found to be in violation of the provisions of subdivision 1 of section 863.313 of this article, such owner may obtain release upon payment of all applicable civil penalties and all reasonable costs of removal and storage as provided herein and upon execution of a sworn statement, subject to the provisions of the Penal Law relative to false statements and satisfactory to the Director or Sealer, that he or she will not permit the person who is alleged to have violated or found to have violated such provisions to operate or possess the vehicle, tool or other implement in violation of subdivision 1 of section 863.313 of this article.

7. After adjudication of the violation underlying the seizure in accordance with subdivision 3 of this section, if the Director or Sealer or the designee of the Director or Sealer finds that the vehicle, tool or other implement has not been used in connection with unlicensed activity under the provisions of subdivision 1 of section 863.313 of this article, the Department of Consumer Protection – Weights and Measures shall promptly cause such vehicle, tool or other implement to be released to its lawful owner upon payment of all outstanding civil penalties previously imposed pursuant to Section 277.171 of the Laws of Westchester County against such owner. If applicable, the Department of Consumer Protection – Weights and Measures shall also promptly return any cash bond posted pursuant to subdivision 4 of this section in accordance with the determination of the Director or Sealer or the designee of the Director or Sealer pursuant to subdivision 3 of this section. Upon demand of the applicant, the Department of Consumer Protection – Weights and Measures shall refund fees, as appropriate, paid in connection with the submission of an application for a home improvement license pursuant to subdivision 6 of this section, provided that said applicant withdraws the application, if pending, or otherwise surrenders any home improvement license previously issued pursuant to such application.

Section 4. This Local Law shall take effect thirty days after it shall have become law.

Section 863.329. Contract provisions

Every home improvement contract and all amendments thereto, shall be in writing and shall be signed by all parties to the contract. The writing shall be legible, in plain English, and shall be in such a form to describe clearly any other document which is to be incorporated into the contract. Before any work is done, the owner shall be furnished a copy of the written agreement, signed by the contractor. The writing may also contain other matters agreed to by the parties to the contract.

The writing shall contain the following:

- (a) The name, address, telephone number and license number of the contractor.

The amount of any such progress payments shall bear a reasonable relationship to the amount of work to be performed, materials to be purchased, or expenses for which the contractor would be obligated at the time of payment.

Section 863.330. Complaints.

ARTICLE XIX. INSTALLATION AND REPAIR OF OVERHEAD GARAGE DOORS.

Section 863.601. Legislative findings.

The County Board of Legislators finds that overhead garage doors without safety cables attached to them create a danger to persons and property. Specifically, the springs which facilitate the opening and closing of overhead garage doors have a tension weight from 75 lbs. to 300 lbs. of pressure. Upon loosening or breaking, these springs can shoot away from the garage door causing serious injury to persons and damage to property.

The County Board of Legislators further finds that the proper installation of an anchored safety cable can avoid serious injury or damage by preventing the release of the spring from an overhead garage door. Therefore, it is in the interest of the welfare and safety of the citizens of Westchester County to require that home improvement businesses install safety cables upon installation or repair of overhead garage doors.

Section 863.602. Definitions.

1. Home improvement business shall mean a home improvement business licensed pursuant to chapter 863, article XVI of the Laws of Westchester County.

2. Overhead garage door shall mean any sectional overhead garage door that employs the use of extensions springs.

3. Person shall mean any natural person, corporation, unincorporated association, firm, partnership, joint venture, joint stock association or other entity or business organization of any kind.

4. Safety cable shall mean a safety cable no less than three-thirty-seconds (3/32) of an inch which is anchored from the rear support brackets that hold the garage door track to the front part of the garage door frame.

Section 863.603. Installation and repair of overhead garage doors.

It shall be unlawful for any person or home improvement business to install or repair any overhead garage door without installing a safety cable, if one does not already exist.

Section 863.604. Violations.

A violation of section 863.603 shall be punishable by a civil fine not to exceed $150.00.

Section 863.605. Severability.

If any clause, sentence, paragraph or part of this article shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph section or part thereof directly involved in the controversy and in which such judgments shall have been rendered.

Notice of cancellation, if given by mail, shall be deemed given when deposited in a mailbox properly addressed and postage prepaid. Notice of cancellation shall be sufficient if it indicates the intention of the owner not to be bound. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this paragraph shall not apply to a transaction in which the owner has initiated the contact and the home improvement is needed to meet a bona fide emergency of the owner, and the owner furnishes the home improvement contractor with a separate dated and signed personal statement in the owner's handwriting describing the situation requiring immediate remedy and expressly acknowledging and waiving the right to cancel the home improvement contract within three business days. For the purposes of this paragraph the term "owner" shall mean an owner or any representative of an owner.

2. The writing shall be legible, in plain English, and shall be in such form to describe clearly any other document which is to be incorporated into the contract. Before any work is done, the owner shall be furnished a copy of the written agreement, signed by the contractor. The writing may also contain other matters agreed to by the parties to the contract.

§ 771-a. Responsibilities of home improvement contractors. No home improvement contractor shall engage in any activity, transaction, or course of business or pay or receive any fee, payment, money, or other thing of value in connection with the financing of a home improvement contract without disclosing such activity, transaction, or course of business and any fees, payment, or other thing of value paid or to be paid in connection therewith, and without having obtained the agreement in writing from all parties to the transaction to such activity and the payment therefor.

§ 772. Penalty for fraud. 1. Any owner who is induced to contract for a home improvement, in reliance on false or fraudulent written representations or false written statements, may sue and recover from such contractor a penalty of five hundred dollars plus reasonable attorney's fees, in addition to any damages sustained by the owner by reason of such statements or representations. In addition, if the court finds that the suit by the owner was without arguable legal merit, it may award reasonable attorney's fees to the contractor.

2. Nothing in this article shall impair, limit, or reduce the statutory, common law or contractual duties or liability of any contractor.

§ 773. Violations. 1. Technical violations. Every home improvement contractor who violates any of the provisions of this article shall be subject to a civil penalty not to exceed one hundred dollars.

2. Substantial violations. Every home improvement contractor who fails to deposit funds in an escrow account or provide a bond or contract of indemnity or irrevocable letter of credit in compliance with the requirements of section seventy-one-a of the lien law, or who fails to provide a written contract substantially in compliance with the requirements of this article, shall be subject to a civil penalty not to exceed the greater of two hundred fifty dollars for each violation or five percent of the aggregate contract price specified in the home improvement contract; provided, however, that in no event shall the total penalty exceed twenty-five hundred dollars for each contract.

3. Mitigating factors; defenses. In an instance where the contractor has been shown to have committed multiple violations of this article or the provisions of section seventy-one-a of the lien law, the court shall consider the following factors in assessing a civil penalty pursuant to subdivision two of this section: the volume of business which the home improvement contractor performs on an annual basis, the number of contracts in violation, the actual financial loss or exposure to financial loss suffered by any owner as a result of the violations, and whether the home improvement contractor acted in good faith or willfully with respect to such violations. No home improvement contractor shall be subject to the increased penalties provided by subdivision two of this section if such contractor shows by a preponderance of the evidence that the violation was not intentional and resulted from a bona fide error made notwithstanding the maintenance of procedures reasonably adopted to avoid such a violation.

§ 774. Action by the attorney general. 1. Upon any violation of the provisions of this article, an application may be made by the attorney general in the name of the people of the state of New York to a court or justice having jurisdiction to issue an injunction, and upon notice to the defendant of not less than five days, to enjoin and restrain the continuance of the violation. If it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court or justice that the defendant has violated this section, an injunction may be issued by the court or justice, enjoining and restraining any further violation, without requiring proof that any person has, in fact, been injured or damaged thereby. In any such proceeding, the court may make allowances to the attorney general as provided in paragraph six of subdivision (a) of section eight thousand three hundred three of the civil practice law and rules, and direct restitution.

In connection with an application made under this section, the attorney general is authorized to take proof and to make a determination of the relevant facts and to issue subpoenas in accordance with the civil practice law and rules.

2. The provisions of this article may be enforced concurrently by the director of a municipal consumer affairs office, or by the town attorney, city corporation counsel, or other lawful designee of a municipality or local government, and all moneys collected thereunder shall be retained by such municipality or local government.

§ 775. Applicability. This article shall not exempt any contractor subject to its provisions from complying with any local law with respect to the regulation of home improvement contractors, provided, however, that after the effective date of this article, no political subdivision may enact a local law inconsistent with the provisions of section seven hundred seventy-one of this article.

§ 776. Severability. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision or part of this article or the application thereof to any person, firm or corporation, or circumstance, shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unconstitutional, such judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, or part of this article; or in its application to the person, firm or corporation, or circumstance, directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered.

§ 71-a. Further trust of funds received or receivable by owner under executory contract for the sale and improvement of real property

4. (a) Under a home improvement contract, payments received from an owner by a home improvement contractor prior to the substantial completion of work under the contract shall be deposited within five business days thereafter by the recipient in an escrow account in a bank, trust company, savings bank, or state or federal savings and loan association, located in this state. No depository institution acting on the instructions or otherwise dealing with a home improvement contractor shall be obliged to inquire into the validity or propriety of any deposits to or withdrawals from any escrow account established by the home improvement contractor in compliance with this subdivision or to insure that any withdrawals from such account are applied for any specific purpose or purposes by the home improvement contractor. Such deposit or deposits shall remain the property of such owner except as otherwise provided herein. [fig 1] Unless the home improvement contract specifies the name of the depository where the funds will be placed, no later than ten business days after the deposit has been made, the recipient shall advise the owner in writing of the name of the depository where the funds have been placed. The recipient shall not be required to keep in separate depository accounts the funds of the separate owners from whom payments have been received, provided his books of account shall clearly show the allocation to each owner of the funds deposited in his general or special depository account or accounts.

(b) In lieu of making the deposit of such payment or payments in an escrow account as provided in paragraph (a) of this subdivision, the recipient may post with the owner a bond or contract of indemnity, issued by a surety company licensed to execute such an instrument in this state, or an irrevocable letter of credit issued by a bank, trust company, savings bank, or state or federal savings and loan institution located in this state, guaranteeing the return of the payments, or the proper application of the payments to the purposes of the contract, which otherwise would be required to be deposited in such escrow account, in which case the recipient shall not be required to deposit such payments in an escrow account. Said bond or contract of indemnity or irrevocable letter of credit shall be delivered to the owner within ten business days after receipt of the payment.

(c) At any time after making the deposit of such payment or payments in the escrow account, the recipient may post with the owner a bond or contract of indemnity issued by a surety company licensed to execute such an instrument in this state, or an irrevocable letter of credit issued by a bank, trust company, savings bank, or state or federal savings and loan institution located in this state, guaranteeing the return or proper application of such payment to the purposes of the contract, in which case the recipient shall not be required to maintain the deposit of such payment in such account.

(d) Such deposit or deposits shall remain the property of the owner or such bond or contract of indemnity or irrevocable letter of credit continued in effect until (i) the proper payment, transfer or application of such deposits by the contractor to the purposes of the home improvement contract under the schedule of payments provided therein; or (ii) the default or breach of the owner excusing the recipient's performance of the terms of the home improvement contract, but only to the extent of any reasonable liquidated damage amount as defined in section 2-718 of the uniform [fig 1] commercial code and set forth in the contract, and only after seven days prior written notice to the owner; or (iii) substantial performance of the contract.

(e) The recipient shall not withdraw deposits from the escrow account in excess at any time of the total amount shown in the schedule of payments in the home improvement contract. The amount of any such progress payments shall bear a reasonable relationship to the amount of work to be performed, materials purchased, or expenses for which the contractor would be obligated.

(f) If the home improvement contract provides that the home improvement contractor will be paid on a specified hourly or time basis for work that has been performed or charges for materials that have been supplied prior to the time that payment is due, this subdivision shall not apply to such payments for such work or materials.

(g) Failure to place customer deposits in escrow, except as provided herein, shall constitute a violation of this section.
